EUROPEAN PELAGIC TUESDAY

Welcome to the first European Pelagic Tuesday at NASF 2025 Bergen, Norway March 4th.

Leading European pelagic industry specialists gather in Bergen to discuss quotas for mackerel and blue whiting, the market for pelagic species, demand and supply.

International researchers and industry experts will update on the stock situation for Mackerel and Blue Whiting. The quota recommendations are also up for discussion. The following panel debate will feature industry executives and experts exchanging views and opinions on the current situation and the future for pelagic fisheries.
